Description

A stunning antique rosewood library table of the utmost quality. This dates from the William IV period, around 1830-1840. It is of exceptional quality and is a very versatile item. This is perfect for use as a desk, occasional side table or centre table. The top has a beautifully moulded edge and this is finished on all sides, so can be used as a free standing item. It stands on two beautifully carved legs with fine details and original casters. The colour and rosewood grain patterns are gorgeous throughout. We have had this recently re-polished, it is in excellent condition throughout, with a lovely patina. Width – 49 inches , 124 cm Depth – 27 inches , 69 cm Height – 29 inches , 73 cm
