Description

Just purchased from a local Perthshire estate is this stunning pair of Victorian Sterling silver Adams style candlesticks by THOMAS BRADBURY & SONS of LONDON. Very much typical of the Adams style with square bases and classical columns with scroll detail to the top. Both have their original lift out sconces. Both are initialled at the base but it is not obtrusive. As to be expected there are one or two minor dints but nothing serious at all. In fact I would say they are a very nice pair of candlesticks that would grace any country house dining table. SIZE; 4" square bases by 10" high CIRCA; Hallmarked for LONDON 1893
