Description

Extremely stylish piece of jewellery from the house of Jakob Bengel, dating to the 1930's and so advanced for it's time in it's design that one could be forgiven for not recognising it as a period piece. One of the leading manufacturers of Art Deco jewellery, the company produced in the 1920's and 1930's very innovative and individual pieces of the time, aesthetically characterised by their unique designs and modernist slant. This alternating patterned bracelet known as brickwork pattern is quite weighty and is segmented with engine turned pieces linked, with orange & black enamel accents. Condition is excellent with little to no signs of it's true age. This piece is old/new stock that's not been worn or used / marketed and as such is the condition, a rare find indeed. Ideal for day or evening wear for the fashion savvy lady of today. Size is for small to medium sized wrist overall length 18 cm. All of our Jewellery and watches are sent out first class in a complimentary gift/presentation box. FREE Delivery UK mainland About Jakob Bengel Jakob Bengel was a chain and costume jewellery factory, founded by Jakob Bengel in 1873 in Idar-Oberstein, Germany. Until 1920, the com...
