Description

Superbly stylish Art Deco tubular table in chrome with a thick glass insert top. The glass has a mirrored edge and jet black center. Often the mirror part is foxed and blemished but this example seems to be in excellent condition as is the black center. No scratches one normally might expect to find. Likewise the chrome is almost blemish free all but for some odd and very small spots on the very base. Very stable table and the stretchers underneath the glass offer extra support for any weight. Free UK mainland delivery.
