Description

A William IV writing table with two frieze drawers to the front. The top is a beautiful one piece veneer with flame grain, retaining an original patinated surface which glows. The cylindrical tapered support columns stand on shaped supports and carved scroll feet. It is a free standing table so has dummy drawers to the opposite side. Solid construction and ready to use, original and in very good condition, c1830. We would be happy to send a video of this piece up to request.
