Description

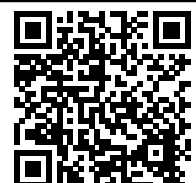

A very beautiful and exceptionally well made late Victorian hardwood sword stick inlaid down four sides of the haft with geometric patterns in boxwood, ebony and mahogany. The crook handle has been fashioned from a single piece of South American hardwood strengthened with boxwood. The Toledo blade fits snugly into the twist lock brass throat and the haft with its exquisite inlay ends with a bone ferrule. This very rare sword stick is one of the finest I have ever owned. Size: Length - 36.5" (92.5cm) Blade Length - 27.25" (69cm)

Internal Ref: 30890
