Description

This remarkable oil painting by German artist Otto Voigt (1870-1949) depicts a lady in her dressing room. The scene is adorned with a beautiful array of fineries as she puts the finishing touches to her outfit. Voigt was a multi-talented creative who was primarily known for his ceramics but also produced paintings that looked back to the 18th and early 19th centuries. He was fascinated by the decorative embellishment of yesteryear and sought to capture its exquisite details. Signed and held within an impressive gilt frame with foliate.
