Description

Georgian "rise and Fall" mahogany cheval mirror of a nice design. The inner mirror section moves up and down on a weight and pulley system so the mirror can be set to any height. The mirror is mahogany with boxwood line inlay. The base with swept, moulded legs with original brass castors. Square uprights with nice shape turned finials at the top. A couple of minor old repairs to the legs otherwise very good for its age. SIZE; 24" wide. 26" deep at the base between the legs. 64" high. CIRCA; 1810 - 1820
