 Frederick Morgan studied under his father, the genre painter John Morgan (1823-1886). At the age of sixteen, his painting The Rehearsal was accepted at the Royal Academy. He was a member of the Royal Institute of Oil Painters. He married the painter Alice Havers in 1872. His many paintings of children and animals were popular and some were reproduced as prints or in advertisements. He was active in London exhibitions from 1865, notably at the Royal Academy (Benezit, Dictionary of Artists, Gründ, 2006). Museum Collections: Abbey House Museum Blackburn Museum and Art Gallery, Blackburn Harris Museum and Art Gallery, Preston Lady Lever Art Gallery, Liverpool, Leeds City Art Gallery, Leeds Museums Sheffield, Sheffield Orcha...
