Description

These Good Quality Mahogany and Brass Bookshelves would make a statement wherever they are placed in a room and would showcase whatever you decide to display on them. The Mahogany shelves are of a glorious rich hue that offsets the brass so well. Standing on elegant brass turned legs, the shelves are supported by reeded columns with cross braces for added strength. The top shelf also has a brass gallery around it to further enhance the pieces, as well as usefully stopping any item rolling off. Presented in excellent restored condition and would work well in both a traditional as well as contemporary décor.
