Description

Deep coloured French mirror backed mahogany console table with marble top. Featuring floral carved legs and feet in the shape of large cat paws. Surrounding the bottom of the table top is an unbroken beaded edge detail which helps to conceal the single drawer built in. In a very good condition with recent restoration and general signs of age. It is stated that the mirror is an original feature to the item. At the base there is a natural and small slight split in the wood. Originates from France. Dated to the early 19th Century, circa 1830. Made from Marble, Glass and Mahogany. Height – 93 cm Width – 106 cm Depth – 45 cm
