Description

Superb Victorian walnut fold over card table with amazing burr walnut veneers. It's wonderful veneered top rotates to reveal a hidden storage recess with plenty of room inside to store the cards, games, etc and folds over to reveal a red square baize games surface. The baize does show some historical marks however this only adds to its charm. It's stands on four elegant cabriole legs with scroll feet. When closed it makes a stunning console table however it is always ready for games night. In excellent condition with a gorgeous warm colour and amazing patina.
