Description

An exceptional 18th century original painted Swedish bowed corner cupboard, featuring slightly raised carved floral and geometric decorations. A striking piece dry-scraped back to its original paint, exposing a unique array of tones, displaying rich greens and yellows, with accents of burnt orange and faint tones of blue. Each series of carvings varies slightly, adding to the visual appeal of this piece. The doors are decorated with subtle folk art carvings of pinwheels. This perfectly proportioned two-part cupboard is surely the work of a creative cabinet maker.
