Description

A superb and complete set of The Greville's Memoirs in three uniformly bound parts with each of these three parts being a first edition set. Part I, published 1874, A Journal of the Reigns of King George IV and King William IV 1818-1837 is contained in volumes 1-3, Part II, published 1885, A Journal of the Reign of Queen Victoria 1837-1852 is contained in volumes 4-6 and Part III, A Journal of the Reign of Queen Victoria 1852-1860 is contained in volumes 7 & 8. The books have been finely bound by Henry Young and Sons of Liverpool in midnight blue half morocco with blue cloth boards. The top edges are gilt and the spines are arranged in 6 gilt decorated fielded panels divided by 5 raised bands with the dates of publication to the tails. The journals were compiled by Charles Cavendish Fulke Greville (1794-1865) and published posthumously by Longmans, Green & Co. They were edited by Henry Reeve, Registrar of the Privy Council. The books are presented in very good condition overall with some shelf wear and marks to the exterior. The gilding and the morocco is bright and fresh. Internally there is some light age toning and some occasional minor foxing, otherwise the pa...
