Description

Comprising all but two of Dicken's 15 novels as well as some of his short stories these works are from the Charles Dicken's Edition and whilst undated were published around 1880 by Chapman and Hall. The two missing novels are his first, The Pickwick Papers published 1836 and his last, The Mystery of Edwin Drood, published 1870. The 13 volumes contain the following works:- Volume 2 - Nicholas Nickleby; 3 Dombey & Son; 4 Oliver Twist/Uncommerial Traveller; 5 Barnaby Rudge; 6 Old Curiosity Shop; 7 David Copperfield; 8 Martin Chuzzlewit; 9 Christmas Books/American Notes; 10 Bleak House; 11 Little Dorrit; 12 Great Expectations/Hard Times; 13 A Tale of Two Cities/Sketches by Boz; 14 Our Mutual Friend. Attractively bound in maroon half calf with gilt decorated spines arranged as 6 compartments by 5 raised bands. The boards, end papers and page edges are all marbled. Externally the spines are a little sun faded whilst the gilding remains sharp and fresh in the main. There is some bumping to corners and wear to extremities and some marks and the marbled paper to the edges of the boards is well worn in numerous places. Internally the pages are age toned and there is r...
