Description

 Superb Pembroke Table - With Drawer & Castors- circa 1860 This mahogany Pembroke table is a lovely size and very versatile. Of particular note are the elegant round turned legs which terminate in a lovely brass castor. The table benefits from an end drawer with twin pull knobs. The leafs are supported by turn-out under arms which are excellently crafted with woodcut hinging. Overall this piece of furniture is in very good condition. The table is well constructed and very solid. It is rare to find an example in this order.
