Description

Hi I have for sale an a1880s French striking and repeating Grand sonnerie carriage clock made in France by the makers Jacot which is signed by them on the inside of the plates of the movement, the clock case has been fully restored the movement has also been fully restored with new springs added and is running strong keeping time and striking correctly with the repeat button on the top all running via the original again restored silvered platform. The Case The case is in solid shiny brass and stands 6.75" high x 3.5" wide with a depth of 3" it is in original condition with thick 5mm beveled front/back door and top viewing glass again all in mint condition. The case is very shiny and hard to photograph they do not do the clock justice at all. At the base is the lever for silent or quarters or grand Sonnerie all working correctly. The Dial The dial is in mint original condition in white porcelain with Roman numerals ; the clock also retains its original very fine black moon hands. The Movement The movement is an eight-day time and strike which strikes the hours, quarters and halves and three quarters via two blue steel gongs to the rear also has the repeater button on t...
