Description

A lovely example of a Georgian patch box dating from the late 18th Century. The bottom part is a bright cobalt blue colour with a cream lid decorated with a hand painted rose. The interior is white with a mirror below the lid. It is in good condition for its age with a strong hinge. There are signs of age and use but no major damages to the exterior and the decoration is all in good condition. There are some crazing lines on the inside and the lid and some age related marks and small spots on the mirror but otherwise it displays beautifully. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK delivery £6, rest of the world £25.
