Description

This is a very attractive rustic 19th century Spanish walnut hall bench. The design is very attractively simple but then the deep carved back supports adds a great detail making this a very decorative piece. The whole bench is rustic in its nature with clear evidence of wood worm damage but all treated and takes nothing away from the charm of the bench. It is structurally sound as well meaning it can be used without worry. Height 79cm Width 240cm Depth 36cm Depth of seat 30cm Height of seat 47cm Price includes UK mainland delivery
