Description

Impressive Victorian breakfront bookcase in gorgeous rich mahogany. This bookcase separates into 3 sections, the beautifully shaped cornice, a four door bookcase and a four door base this allows for easy transportation. It's four glaze doors with arched mouldings opens to reveal four long and eight short, fully adjustable shelves, four of which have been replaced in the past. The material covering the back panels is a bit faded and could be replaced with ease however this adds to the charm and character of this stunning bookcase. Each of the three cupboards in the base have a single fully adjustable shelf and panelled doors. The quality of the mahogany veneer is outstanding and shows true craftsmanship. Weather its storing books or displaying treasures they will never look better than when house in this stunning piece of history
