Description

Arts & Crafts Bureau Bookcase - Oak - Circa 1890 This piece is an excellent example of an Arts & Crafts inspired Bureau Bookcase crafted c1890. This useful and very well kept item consists of a drop flap desk, fitted interior, full width drawer and twin shelf knee area bookcase. The construction is solid and the Oak is very nicely presented. The narrow dimensions of this bureau make it very suitable for for a hallway passage, however with the flap open the working surface is well sized and allows the piece to act effectively as a writing or computing desk with plenty of great storage locations. The lower drawer adds to the practical nature of the bureau and the lower bookcase completes the design perfectly. A wonderful piece of furniture that is in excellent order throughout.
