Description

Delightful small size, airy, mid 18th century Georgian oak pot board dresser with original rack. First thing to say is this is a lovely wee size and is a very nice mellow oak colour (i.e. not too dark). The base consists of 5 drawers with cock beaded edges, pine lined with later brass handles. The turnings to the front are a nice design. The original rack has 3 shelves, all with a plate groove and retains most of its original iron hanging hooks. The dresser is in pretty good condition with only one or two minor old repairs and later replaced brass handles. The dresser is a lovely colour with a waxed finish. Great small size. SIZE; 55" wide by 16" deep by 80" high overall. Base height is 33 1/2" CIRCA; 1750 - 1770
