Description

Sideboard - American Walnut - Fine Condition - circa 1890 This very nicely crafted American Walnut Sideboard cabinet. It benefits from a fine top section with twin pocket drawers and a second tier display shelf. The rounded raised back is stylish and in keeping with the piece. The main surface of the sideboard is in excellent order proving just how well kept this item of furniture has been over the decades. The lower section has a door either side and both have functioning locks complete with keys. The internal layout is very practical giving lots of storage space. The centre section is arranged with 4 drawers. The uppermost drawer is set and lined for cutlery storage. Overall an exceptional piece in very fine condition, which will grace any location.
