Description

Substantial Oak Cabinet - Fabulous Engravings - circa 1830 This very robustly built oak cabinet benefits from lovely carvings on each of the two doors. One side shows nicely detailed flowers and the other has a partridge and flowers. Both doors have functioning locks complete with keys. The internal layout is very practical giving lots of storage space. The door hinges are straight internal pin design for maximum durability. The colour is excellent - not too dark. This piece is built to last and should be good for at least the next 500 years!
