Description

A good quality mahogany glazed cabinet dating from the late 19th Century - ideal for use as a bookcase or display cabinet. It has two glazed doors that open to a shelved interior and the position of the shelves is adjustable. The cabinet also comes with a working key. It is a good size with nice small proportions and is in good condition for its age. The mahogany has developed a wonderful rich aged patina but is not without some small knocks and marks, some small repairs around the top edge and a few old chips and splits around the base but nothing detrimental and it displays well. The shelves are clean and sturdy and it has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
