Description

A good quality nest of 3 mahogany tables dating from the early 20th Century. They are an elegant regency style design with simple rectangular tops standing on turned columns with sleigh feet joined by a curved stretcher. Each table is graduated in size and slots neatly underneath the larger. They are in good condition for their age and are strong and sturdy. There are some signs of age and use, some light surface marks and minor knocks but nothing detrimental. The largest of the tables is slightly sun faded compared to the smaller two but overall they still display well. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
