Description

Circa 1870. A quality walnut Italian occasional table from Sorrento. The octagonal top with segmented walnut veneers with a large circular inlaid panel in the center with further concentric circles including geometric diamond and triangular panels of inlay. Frieze with chequered inlay, the table stands on a classic Sorrento stem which is turned and ring turned with inlay on the bulbous sections. The table rests on three hipped cabriole legs with herringbone inlay on the tops and finishing on a primitive foot.
