Description

A remarkable fine antique Chi Chi rug, bursting with colour and crisp geometric design. Exquisite varying blues, changing colour and greens with rich yellows and green. Well proportioned design and thought-out by the weaver over 140 years ago. The weave is fine and pile height medium high all over. Both fringes have been professionally rewoven around 3-4cm, which has been done expertly and does not detract from the rugs value and rarity. The sheer brightness and sharp colour and design is what made us excited about adding this exceptional piece to our inventory.
