Description

Superb and totally original is this 1930's Art Deco Triple Door Wardrobe with working key. Not only does this wardrobe look impressive with it's blonde maple veneers and Walnut banding which match and follow on each door but it's extremely generous in the storage it provides. Offering four good sized cubed shelves to the right, two of which are glazed and three drawers with military type chrome handles. On the left side is a full hanging area with an upper open shelf extending the double width. All the locks and catches which are working well and have been cleaned. The hanging area has its original chrome pole. There's a full length mirror to the inside of one door, some mild foxing to the edges but nothing unsightly. We've had the whole piece taken through our workshops and fully and professionally restored, everything works as it should, certainly this wardrobe won't disappoint. Breaks down into sections for ease.
