Description

If you're looking for both kerb appeal and functionality then this rather stylish and totally original Art Deco tallboy which dates to late 20's early 1930's could be just for you! Resting on an ebonised plinth is a generous sized two door combination interior of both hanging area and open shelved storage. Perfect piece for intermediate storage if you don't need a full double wardrobe or if there is space limitation. There is a pull out rail and another tie rail fixed to one of the interior doors. Plenty of space for folded items and hanging. Further storage can be found with the top drawer. Both the drawer and doors retain their original bakelite and metal handles, all work smoothly. Very attractive stand alone item that from every angle offers beautifully figured walnut veneers. Having been fully and professionally restored this lovely piece comes to you in excellent condition with no faults to note. Perfect piece which integrates with both modern and period settings. Internal hanging area is : Height 110 cm Width 53 cm Depth 41 cm
