Description

A very handsome antique sterling silver and glass, leather-bound hip flask. The silver lid has a bayonet fitting and is hinged with a silver collar. Here clear hallmarks are visible for the Sheffield Assay office with a date mark for 1904, Lion Passant indicating fine sterling silver and the maker's mark for the silversmith: James Dixon & Sons. The top half of the glass body is bound in a stylish cognac coloured leather (there is a small nick of leather damage on one side just below the glass panel which enables viewing the contents - see images). The lower half of the flask pulls away to be used as a drinking cup, and full hallmarks are also clearly visible on one side. A super Hip flask; in great overall condition (small amount of leather damage as mentioned above) and some very light surface scratching to the silver cup, commensurate with age and mentioned only for accuracy. Hallmarks: Sheffield 1904 by James Dixon & Sons. Measurements: Height: 14cm Width 8.4 cm Depth: 2.5 cm Weight: 340.9 grams Weights and measurements are approximate. NJL36347
