Description

A brilliant pair of early 20th century antique beech and elm captains armchairs or smokers' bow chairs. The antique captain's armchairs have a curved spindle back with shaped arms and a solid elm seat. The antique armchairs are raised on thick turned legs, with double 'H' stretcher supports. Rich colour and grain throughout. Item Ref; M-4246 . DIMENSIONS: Height - 81.5cm / Width - 67cm / Depth - 56.5cm / Seat Height - 45cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches and fading to the seat and armrests (pictured). There is also shrinkage to the backrest of both armchairs, and a small repair to one (pictured). Further marks and wear to the legs (pictured). The antique captain's armchairs remain structurally solid and sound, with good tight joints. Overall, a great pair of antique armchairs. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item. .
