Description

A wonderful period tea caddy dating to the George III era, with a hallmark for London 1792 together with the makers initials GH, I believe for the silversmith, George Hindmarsh. The body is enhanced with repousse scrolls together with floral and foliate decoration and the lid a continuous floral and foliate garland following the ovoid form. The lid is hinged with a finial's shape complimenting that of the box, the hinge is in good working order. An exquisite caddy in excellent condition. A nice heavy piece weighing in at 213.6 Grams or 6.86 Troy Ounces. 4" wide x 4 1/4" tall. Item ID: 32628 ----- FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
