Description

A Victorian antique for the modern home office! A lovely late 19th century aesthetic movement walnut desk in the style of Lamb of Manchester. Asymmetric with a single pedestal with an unusual small side cupboard with leather top. The desk has five drawers & is fitted with totally original brass handles and a further base shelf. This a very notable, unmolested piece of desirable furniture and is much more appealing than its modern equivalents. Please see the other antique furniture we have listed. Knee height 60cm
