Description

A 19th William IV rosewood library table, tooled olive leather insert top, rounded corners, fitted with two frieze drawers matched by dummy drawers, stretcher ends, scrolled feet. The table is offered in excellent conditions, with a wonderful rich rosewood patina. The table is structurally sound, with no evidence of any woodworm. This table is freestanding so it's looks the same all round. This is a tremendous piece of furniture which has to be seen to be appreciated. Original condition from England Circa 1830-1837

Internal Ref: PAP19001
