Description

A Charming Oak Bathroom or Hall Cabinet Circa 1900. The upper shelf with turned supports housing the rectangular bevelled mirror and further shelf area. The bottom section with chamfered and panelled doors enclosing a cupboard with working lock and key. Finished with pretty turned finials to the lower section. Ideal as a bathroom or shaving cabinet for potions and lotions. Would work equally well as a hall cabinet for storing keys etc. Small loss to the lower back fretwork as shown last picture.
