Description

A spectacular set of three fully cast silver decanter labels, commemorating the Coronation of Elizabeth II. These outstanding examples feature twin rampant lions and a crown to the terminal. The silver is of heavy gauge, being fully cast and the hallmark for 1953, bears the desirable, but optional Queen's head mark. Made by the renowned Leslie Gorden Durbin, these are of superior design and realisation, as one would expect from an apprentice and employee of the great Omar Ramsden. Durbin's flair and esteemed origins are amply reflected in his work, making these wonderful great collector's items, with a practical use.
