Description

A well presented and impressive mid 18th century antique mahogany gateleg dining table. The antique gateleg dining table has a rectangular shaped surface top with rounded edges, and two semi circle drop leaves to either side. The drop leaves are supported by the hinged gate legs and form a large circular shaped table top when extended. The table is raised on four tapering legs with pad feet. A rather pleasing example, suitable to sit six to eight people comfortably. Good colour and patina throughout. Item Ref; M-4265 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 73.5cm / Width – 154.5cm / Depth – 54.5cm / Extended - 170cm / Legroom - 58cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches, stains and fading to the surface top (pictured), further marks and wear to the legs. There is evidence of historic woodworm underneath, however this is now long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. The antique gateleg dining table remains structurally solid and sound, with the hinged legs working well. Overall, a great example.
