Description

This beautifully elegant Dressing table, having shaped to figured mahogany top and five mahogany line drawers fitted with original turned knobs, and two jewel compartment. Standing on turned and fluted legs terminating in brass castors. This table was made from solid mahogany by a master craftsman, and should last for a generations more. The mirror in good original condition expect the usual ageing of the mirror glass (some foxing to mirror). Light foxing serves to demonstrate the pleasing patina of age. We like it that but you could have it changed if you wanted. The dressing table is offered in excellent condition having been re-polished. The dressing table is structurally sound with no evidence of any woodworm, brass castors are original, wonderful rich mahogany patina
