Description

A large silver plated tea caddy from the mid - Victorian era. This handsome example is of cylindrical form, with beaded rims and a handsome monogram ('R' with a coronet above). To the pull off lid there is a shaped knob. It's generous proportions make the caddy versatile and an alternative use would be as a biscuit barrel. It's fine appearance renders it both decorative and practical. Dimensions below. Postage and packing £12.00 UK £20.00 Europe £26.00 Outside Europe Condition :- Excellent, with no dents, splits. There is a small area of plate loss near the armorial, commensurate with age and use. Origin :- English. Marks :- Maker's mark, EPNS. Maker :- Martin Hall & Co. Date :- c1860. Height :- 16 cms. Diameter :- 10.3 cms
