Description

Very good quality and beautifully proportioned early 19th century English Regency rosewood tilt top centre table or dining table, circa 1820. Fabulous rosewood grain throughout the top and the triform pedestal base with a wonderfully warm tone and mellow beeswax finish. Originally used as breakfast or dining tables which could then be tilted up and placed aside in a corner when not in use. Now, these tables make great centre hall tables so as to show off that wonderful triform pedestal base, but will seat 5 to 6 to use as a dining table. Classic style and Regency elegance. Measuring: 29 1/2 inches or 75 cm high 47 1/2 inches or 120.5 cm diameter 27 1/4 inches or 69 cm from the floor to the underside of the apron
