Description

Very decorative 18th century Dutch painted commode with a simulated marble top and lions mask brass handles. The chest of drawers has four full width drawers with a fully moulded front and painted in a deep charcoal grey to black aged finish. All drawers are running well. Nice proportions to this commode, being slightly taller than the average so it will work as a decor piece in a living room as well as for bedroom storage for example. Great piece of furniture and an unusual model. Measuring: Height 42 1/2" or 107cm Width 41 1/2" or 105.5cm Depth 21" or 54cm
