Description

This is a very attractive piece. A large Antique Victorian sterling silver dish in the form of a scallop shell made by Atkins Bros and hallmarked in Sheffield 1898. It is in very good condition and stands firmly on 3 reeded feet. Hallmarks are clearly struck and there is a vacant cartouche to the handle. Extensive scrolled foliate decoration with the outer scalloped rim beautifully pierced. A Victorian silver dish that would have a variety of purposes or simply as an ornate decorative piece. (NB any shadows shown in the photographs are merely reflections) Weight 234 gms (7.5 ozs) Max length 24.5 cms (9.75 ins) FREE INSURED POSTAGE WORLDWIDE
