Description

A George V era set of six silver napkin rings each hallmarked Birmingham 1926 with makers mark for AH BULLOCK. Cased in their original puce silk and velvet lined box, with a space for each napkin ring, these napkin rings are in pristine condition, doubtful if ever used. The concave waist of each ring bears a vacant shield and is chased with a foliage pattern. The rims are delicately beaded. The box clicks shut and is reopened by pressed the external lever. Unspoiled, elegant and beautiful.
