Description

Victorian walnut linen press This Victorian walnut linen press was made circa 1870 in one of the finest workshops in London. The dwarf linen press top, that is enclosed by a pair of panel doors, that open to reveal a full storage area. It would make a fantastic place for your TV or music system, as well as any other storage. This Victorian walnut linen press is made in 2 parts, this allows easy transportation to and around your home. The base chest section is fitted 2 half width drawers and a further 3 full width graduated drawers under. All are fitted with the original finely turned original solid walnut handles. Having the rounded corners is a desirable feature as it softens the look. Imagine this wonderful high-quality piece of very useful furniture in your home, and the envious eyes cast on it by your family and friends. 115cms wide across the cornice 45ins 56cms deep to front of cornice 22ins 176cms high 69ins All dimensions are approximate, whilst we take as much care as possible, we can be marginally out.
