Description

Victorian Music Cabinet - 1901 Charming late Victorian music cabinet in mahogany with castors. This example benefits from a partially mirrored door and lovely brass date plaque. The glazed door opens to reveal 5 shelves offering great storage space. The cabinet is complete with key and working lock. Overall a nice piece of furniture which looks attractive and functions nicely. The piece is clean and there are the expected signs of use. A very versatile size and adaptable to suit many non-musical storage or display requirements.
