Description

A quite rare Regency glass scent bottle which was made to celebrate the coronation of George IV. It is in good condition with no chips or cracks. However, we believe that the stopper could have been replaced. It is identical to the stopper which we've seen on another crown of the same size and would have been specially made. This is reflected in the price. We can deliver free of charge in UK mainland and can calculate the cost for International delivery. Payment by bank transfer or PayPal.
