Description

This is a spectacular and rare late 19th century 34inch Lay figure. I have always been fascinated with these figures as they are scarce things and very much of their time. Used by artist to position so their subject wouldn't have to sit for hours. Articulated joints and has the ability to be posed in anyway you desire. This is example is larger than average and is overall very good condition with attractive age related wear. He is a very cheeky chap that I hope brings a bit of fun to his new home.
