Description

A rare find, this magnificent novelty toast rack of sporting interest, would look at home on both the dining table or desk-top to accommodate letters and various bits and pieces. The sections are made in the form of cricket bats, the feet created in the form of four leather cricket balls and finial another cricket ball topped with a ring handle with two crossed cricket bats, two cricket balls and stumps embossed into the handle. Either end of the toast rack are finished with cricket stumps. The piece is lucky enough to have an English design registration lozenge which allows us to accurately date the design of this piece to 3rd August 1872. A highly collectable piece in superb condition measuring 7 1/8" x 3 5/8" x 6 1/4". Item: 44101 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From the UK
