Description

A lovely original antique Edwardian revolving bookcase in mahogany. This was made in England, it dates from around the 1900-1910 period. It is of excellent quality and is a very useful item. It is finished on all four sides with open bookshelves and vertical rails. It spins on the splayed mahogany base, which also has casters so it can also be rolled around. The top is inlaid and cross banded around the edges with satin wood. We have had this recently re-polished, the condition is excellent for its age.
